

Annual Business Meeting
Stony Brook Camera Club
May 21, 2009

The annual business meeting was held at the Wrentham Senior Center, President, Glenn Browning called the meeting to order at 7:35 p.m.

Treasurer, Don Plouffe read the treasurers report and after a brief explanation of the miscellaneous expense account a motion to accept was made and passed.

Glenn explained to the membership the decision reached by the board about compensation for Judges/Speakers. Stony Brook will pay for the meals of judges, speakers and their guest, with a cap of thirty dollars, including tip, per meal. The expense will be paid by the club, and members will pay for their own meals.

Competition rules will continue as they are posted on the web. The chairmen will rule on eligibility of images and we will allow judges to also rule on eligibility which is a continuation of current policy.

Due to the low number of slides submitted at every competition, there will no longer be an A or B class. All slides will be in one class.

Image submission will continue by e-mail. Rob DeRobertis is investigating the feasibility of submission to the web for the future.

Image make up rules are posted on our web page and we will continue with the current policy.

Pam Medeiros explained the concept of the book she and Delores Rogers are compiling about interesting places to photograph in New England. She asked for more input from members who have knowledge of places for photography.

Having no new business to address at this time the meeting was adjourned at 7:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Brenda Cleveland, Secretary
