12. Looking at our home page, what information should be included on this page?

#	Response
1	News, Calendar Info
2	Less is more - let's keep it simple and less busy-looking!
3	The news should be more up to date.
4	news/ links to new information or upcoming events/ photo opportunities
5	I think the current home page is adequate.
6	Nicely done!!!! Who does it???
7	A section that notes events for the upcoming month
8	Welcome Links to contacts Links to forum, rules, bylaws, etc. Example member images Headlines Submission deadlines Brief calendar, link to detailed calendar Links to galleries.
9	There is quite enough on the home page already, any more will make it harder to find what you're looking for
10	Again, Keep announcements, news, information, etc minimal but have link to separate page with further information, newsworthy items, pictures, etc.
11	I think it's great that the website is being maintained now with fresh new content.
12	What's there is fine.
